

SOCIETY

THE past week was characterized by an absolute lack of life in the social world of the city. Two brilliant weddings, a luncheon or two, and some informal affairs were all the evidence there was that all the smart set had not taken to the woods. The coming week promises more in the line of minor events, but the music of the social world is the only large affair in sight before the garrison hop at the post on the 25th of the month. Many of the society people are leaving for the mountains, the coast or the old favorite, Soda Springs. A large number, however, will spend the entire summer in the city, leaving only on short trips to the canyons, or the resorts around town. Several fair visitors are in town and a number of delightful events are planned for them, but these are mainly of an informal or outdoor order, and make but a ripple on the calm sea of social life. Still, there are signs of becoming a "whirl."

Coming Events.

Society is looking anxiously forward to the musical, which is to be given tomorrow evening at the Fifth East, and which promises to be one of the most delightful affairs of the summer. The friends of Mrs. Martha Boyle King are anticipating a great treat in listening once more to her voice. Mrs. King will be assisted by Miss Edna Cohn and Mr. Woodman.

Mrs. John Cain has invitations out for a Kensington Tuesday afternoon to be given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Baxter, who is spending the summer with her.

Mrs. E. W. Duncan gives a Kensington Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Harriman, who is her guest.

Dr. and Mrs. Hepburn will entertain at dinner this evening.

Misses Vera Tempest and Bessie Coxall entertain for Miss Scofield Thursday afternoon.

Miss Edith Hobbs will entertain at a Kensington next Wednesday afternoon.

Many Salt Lakers are planning to go to Park City to attend the large reception to be given by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. S. J. Kenyon will entertain her friends at a Kensington next Saturday morning.

Engagements and Weddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scofield announce the engagement of their daughter, Isabelle, to Mr. Claude Levette De Long, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles De Long of Omaha, the marriage to take place this month.

The marriage of Miss Susie Tatlock and Mr. Harry S. Jayne will take place in San Francisco at noon on Wednesday. The young people will make their home on the coast, and the good wishes of a large number of Salt Lake friends will follow them.

Many of the friends of both the young people will be interested in the marriage of Miss Irma Alf and Mr. Charles Hennrich, which will take place immediately after the arrival of Miss Alf at Cape Town. Miss Alf sails tomorrow from New York, and after a short stay in Paris will go direct to Cape Town, leaving after the ceremony for Kimberley.

Shearman-Katz Wedding.

The only social event of any prominence which the past week has recorded was the marriage early in the week of Miss Edna Robinson Shearman and Mr. Alma Denbigh Katz. The young people were two of the most popular in the society of the city, and the wedding, followed as it was by a large and elaborate reception, was one of the most delightful of social functions. The ceremony was performed at the hour of 2 in St. Mark's cathedral, and was of the high church order. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Cohen and Miss Mabel Pratt as bridesmaids, and by Miss Miriam Cohen as flower girl. Mr. Harry Lennon was best man, and Mr. R. N. Young was groomsmen. At the reception which followed the host and hostess were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, Miss Sutton, Miss Dee of Ogden, and the Misses Nana Chapin, Annie Adams, Alice Farrell and Ethel Pitt. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt left on the late train for Portland, whence they will go by boat to San Francisco.

At the reception which followed, the guests were received by the bride party assisted by Mrs. J. H. Young, Mrs. R. C. Woodruff, Mrs. J. R. Polson of San Francisco, Mrs. D. B. Hempstead, Miss Bertha Hempstead, Miss Crawford and Miss Fannie Hanauer. Presiding in the dining room was Mrs. William P. A. and assisting her were the Misses Nison, Sherman, Harkness, Lowe and Thorne. At the beautifully appointed table sat Mrs. McCarthy and Miss Blanche Kimball pouring coffee. Punch was served in the reception room upstairs by Miss Laura Sherman and Miss Stella Salisbury.

Cohen-Pratt Marriage.

Monday evening one of the prettiest of home weddings took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Cohen, when their daughter, Elsie, was married to Mr. Arthur Pratt, Jr. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by Judge Morse, and was followed by a large reception, at which about 200 friends of the two families were present. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Cohen and Miss Mabel Pratt as bridesmaids, and by Miss Miriam Cohen as flower girl. Mr. Harry Lennon was best man, and Mr. R. N. Young was groomsmen. At the reception which followed the host and hostess were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, Miss Sutton, Miss Dee of Ogden, and the Misses Nana Chapin, Annie Adams, Alice Farrell and Ethel Pitt. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt left on the late train for Portland, whence they will go by boat to San Francisco.

Kensington Tea.

Miss Belle Bartholomew of Chicago was the guest of honor at a very pretty arranged Kensington tea yesterday afternoon, given by Miss Edna Duncan. The parlors were decorated with pink and white sweet peas, and the two colors were admirably carried out in all the decorations and refreshments. An exquisite centerpiece of boiling cloth, painted in the colors, was used on the large table, and the refreshments were served at small tables placed around it. After the thimble work was ended a pleasant guessing game was played, and prizes were won by Miss Lizzie Thomas and Miss Lora Schoppe. Mrs. Duncan was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Harriman and Miss Street.

The guests invited to meet Miss Bartholomew were the Misses Bertha Bootes, Carrie Sappington, Edith Hale, Leary, Hobbs, Officer, Morrison, Berkhoff, Dena Bailey, Manto, Bird, Schoppe, Nellie Street, Pearl Van Cott, Leta and Bess McMillan, Elizabeth Palmer, Harriet Cohn, Blanch Cherry, Strauss of New York, Coates, Rich, Watson, Alta Earl, Allie Godbe, Lee Block, Blanch Rule and Lizzie Thomas.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. Le Grand Young was the hostess Thursday at a most delightful luncheon, given at her home in Red Butte hollow. The guests were seated at small tables with tasteful decorations at each. Following the course luncheon, tea was served on the lawn, and a very pleasant hour spent under the trees. The guests of the affair were Mrs. H. M. Wells, Mrs. Hanauer, Mrs. Frankel, Mrs. Gue, Mrs. Polson, Mrs. F. W. Jennings, Mrs. Zane, Mrs. Katz, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. C. D. Rookledge, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. J. H. Young, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Reid, the Misses Hanauer, Miss Chamberlaine, Miss Shearman, Miss Crawford, the Misses Young and Miss Mackintosh.

At Cards.

Almost the only card party of the week, and certainly the most delightful, was that given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dale. The house was beautifully decorated, the artistic work having been designed by Evans. The parlors and dining room were in pink and white, with the wicker green of the asparagus fern, and the flowers were the deep red carnations. About sixty guests enjoyed the evening, and the game of sixty-three was played with enthusiasm. The score cards were dainty pen and ink sketches, and the tallies were smaller cards to match. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. David C. McLaughlin; the men's by Mr. George Holman, and the consolation prizes went to Mrs. J. S. Bransford and Colonel E. A. Wall.

Hawaiian Luncheon.

Mrs. Joseph Siegel of Butte was the guest of honor at a beautifully appointed luncheon given on Thursday by Mrs. Jacob Moritz. The table decorations were in the Hawaiian colors, and the flowers used were yellow coreopsis and "Lelelema," or Hawaiian wreath. A bowl of the native wood carved in a marvelous design held the flowers used as a centerpiece. At each place were sprays of the wreath combined with the brilliant coreopsis. The other guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Bamberger, Mrs. N. A. Hanshoff, Mrs. Oberdorfer, Mrs. Mass of Cincinnati, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Samuels, Mrs. H. Siegel, Mrs. Greenwald and Mr. Sol Siegel.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. B. N. White has gone to Colorado for a visit.

Friday for Seattle, where she will visit her sister.
